

A walk through history:

---

In 1929 a group of concerned citizens including pioneers like Zerilda Steyn, William Mason and Bishop Lavis, decided to form a company to help address the huge housing crisis in this country. The Company, Communicare, originally named The Citizen's Housing League's; aim was the provision of social housing opportunities for the poor. This they did through successfully developing communities including Thornton, Bishop Lavis, Ruyterwacht and Brooklyn.

Did you know:

---

The Company's first project of 28 houses in Crawford was completed in 1930.